PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It's time to renew our membership again. If you have not done so already, you can visit our web page to get our renewal application.

The Board is in the process of getting speakers together for the upcoming year, I would appreciate feedback from the members, if there is someone you would like to hear speak or if there is a topic which you think would be beneficial to the members. We are hoping to have most of the speakers lined up within the next couple of months for the entire year.

If you signed up for a committee at the last meeting, I will be contacting each of you in order that I can have a meeting with each committee so we can start 2010-2011 off together.

I hope to see you all at our First Annual Putt Putt Golf Tournament this Friday.

If any of you are interested in taking a trip to Fredericksburg, Texas – please let me know, this is something that the Board is going to be planning on in the next couple of months. It will have to be on a Saturday. Please email me your thoughts and suggestions.

If any of you have any graduation stories or summer vacation stories that you would like to share with the rest of us, please submit your stories to Pat Simecek.

CONGRATULATIONS Kathy Taylor's youngest son, Josh, is now a firefighter AND a police officer. He graduated from the Temple police academy on June 10 and passed his state test in Austin on June 9. He will probably stay with firefighting and become an arson investigator (that's why he had to become a peace officer). The Taylor Family pretty well has all the bases covered now. Kathy is in the legal field, Jerry's kind of considered transportation with the railroad, firemen, policemen, teachers, coaches, and Jodie's a registered nurse. They should be able to handle any kind of emergency now.

Pat Simecek's nieces and nephew graduated from Rogers High School on Saturday, June 5 (the first set of triplets to graduate from RHS). Megan, the youngest and her goddaughter, gave the invocation. Matthew was the first one on his row of graduates (followed by Megan and Melissa) so he led those seniors up to the stage. He was the first one on that row and of the triplets to receive his diploma and to graduate – Matthew was finally first in something! Melissa, Matthew, and Megan were National Honor Society Graduates, Honor Graduates, and Texas Scholars. Out of the class of sixty students Megan graduated fourth, Melissa seventh, and Matthew eighteenth. Keynote Speaker Ms. Robin Marsh, the high school chemistry teacher, gave an insightful, biographical, and sometimes hilarious speech that told the audience of family and friends about each graduate. About Matthew she said, "Can the little ones jump the big ones? and then he proceeded to beat me at checkers." That is an accurate snapshot of Matthew. About Melissa and Megan Ms. Marsh said, "They are the only students who know fine music when they hear it; they never made fun of my singing." Pat's nieces and nephew also received several scholarships:

Melissa (oldest): Catholic Life Insurance Company, Doody Ward Veterans Memorial Scholarship, East Bell Youth Boosters, and Knights of Columbus – Cyclone / Marak;

Matthew: Calvin Kramer Memorial Scholarship, East Bell County Youth Boosters, and Rogers Memorial Scholarship

Megan (youngest): Altrusa International of Temple, Catholic Life Insurance Company, FFA – Cathay Richter Memorial Scholarship, and Knights of Columbus – Cyclone / Marak.

Pat looked at her sister's face each time her senior's name was announced before receiving his or her diploma, and she had a grin three times the normal size. It was an especially special event because all members of both sides of the family were there except for Grandpa Mesecke who passed away about three years before the triplets were born and Pat's oldest nephew who was unable to get off from work.
